Hi Guys!

The school year seems to have gone by so fast and it's already the last month—before summer! While I know you're very excited about your upcoming vacation, you shouldn't lose focus on your academics, especially on your last big exams of the year! To help you out, we've got some study tips (courtesy of Bloom) to help you get to the top of your class!

On another note, as soon as you submit your last exam this month, it's officially summertime! We have some tips from the fairies—from stuff you can make on your own to activities you can take on during the vacation—that will surely make it a blast!

Have fun!

Love, Cheryl

D-I-Y Fashion

No need to go out to the mall to buy new clothes for the summer! Reach for your old tank tops and redecorate them into these exciting new tops! The best part is telling all your friends that you made them yourself-okay, maybe with some help from your mom!)

YELLOW LACY RAZORBACK

Materials:

- Needle and thread
- 2 yards of lace
- An old racer back tee
- Scissors

What to do:

1. Hold up the lace to the arm hole of the tank top to see how much lace you'll need, and cut the desired length.

2. Sew the lace onto the armhole area of the tank top with running stitches.

   TIP: Be sure the thread is the same color as the shirt and lace to create "invisible" stitches.

3. The extra lace can be used to adorn the lower end of the tank top. Also use running stitches for this.

   TIP: Use the inner part of the fold of the lower end of the tank top so that the stitches will not be seen in front for a cleaner look.

OLD ROSE TANK WITH TIE

Materials:

- Basin of water
- Powdered dye (old rose)
- Old white tank top
- 2 yards of thick ribbon

What to do:

1. Heat water to boil, and then pour water into a basin. Remember that what you are handling is very hot, so don't forget to use pot holders

2. Place the powdered dye into the hot water and use an old wooden spoon (with a long handle) to stir it. Dip the tank top into the colored water and wait for 15 minutes for the dye to seep through the material. Wring tank top to remove excess water and let it dry under the sun

3. To finish, use 2 yards of thick ribbon and tie it on one of the straps.

TIP: Let the excess of the ribbon make one part longer than the other to add chic factor.

EXAM SHOWDOWN

Ace the last exams on the year with these effective study tips!

Summer vacation is just around the corner! Can't wait to trade school in for two glorious months of fun under the summer sun? Better make sure to ace all those final exams first. That way, you're sure to breeze into vacation-mode without worrying about how your grades are going to end up. Here are some helpful hints to prep you for those killer tests and put you "in the zone" for some serious academic grilling:

* Organize, organize, organize! We don't mean just having neat, legible notes that outlines every topic discussed in class in accurate detail. Organization means having an orderly study area, as well. Keep your study desk at home free of unnecessary clutter and put away anything that can distract you. Using that Jesse McCartney poster for a deskpad? Not a good idea.

* Find your niche. Everyone has their own technique when it comes to studying for tests. Evaluate yourself and find out how you can maximize your time and abilities. Are you a night person or do you absorb info better during the day? Can you sit at a desk hour after hour or do you work better with short breaks in between? Once you figure out the way you work best, studying will be a breeze!

* Make a list and check it twice! That is, make a list of priorities. Take out a clean sheet of paper and write down everything you need to study, starting with the subject that you find most difficult. Post the list on a corkboard above your desk or keep it close by. That way, you can cross each subject (or topic) off as you go along—and trust us, nothing is more satisfying than drawing a thick line through each number.

* Stay healthy. Now is not a good time to go on a diet. Make sure you eat right to keep your energy up and stay at the peak of your game. Load up on fruits, vegetables, and cereal to keep your immune system up and keep you going. Cut down on the sweets and junk food—these processed foods will only slow you down.

* Sleep tight. Last, but not the least, get enough sleep. Even if you have a dozen extra-curricular activities to tackle after school, be sure to give your body the rest it needs to recharge itself each day. A couple of weeks before the exams, take extra care not to tire yourself out or you might end up too exhausted to even crack open those books.

Green Alert

Planting trees can make a huge difference in the environment!

Think green this summer! Do your bit to help the environment by planting a tree right in your backyard. Tree planting is the most common activity people associate with helping the environment but the simple act of planting can help in a lot of ways. They first start out as small seedlings and grow little by little but in a few years, they grow not only to make your backyard more beautiful – these trees really do help the environment.

Grown trees would give you shade and lessen the cooling costs of your house on warm days. Can you believe that the net cooling effect of a young, healthy tree is equal to ten room-size air conditioners operating 20 hours a day? This happens when trees convert warm carbon dioxide into much cooler oxygen. That said, trees would also provide you with better air to breathe!

Flowering trees also provide food for wildlife. Ok, maybe not the big animals...but they would provide food for small animals what would contribute to the biodiversity of your home. Or, if you decide to put an orchard in your backyard, these plants could provide food for you, too!

ROCKIN' WITH A CAUSE

Your favorite musicians have put their amazing talents into good use by creating awareness on some of the gravest troubles in the world today.

Imagine growing up in an environment of violence, gunfights, AIDS and war. You wouldn't really think anyone can live a life like that, right? Unfortunately, this does happen. There are children in some parts of the world who grow up in war zones. Over 30 wars and conflicts are currently happening around the world, and victims are mainly women and children.

Shocked by the lack of awareness and action about this issue, rockers like Avril Lavigne and Sum 41 have been involved with Warchild in order to raise awareness about the plight of children in war zones. They have also been involved in projects that raise funds to support the different relief and rehabilitation programs that Warchild organized in countries like the Congo, Sudan, Afghanistan and Iraq.

WAR child

Avril Lavigne did a remake of "Knockin' on Heaven's Door" that was featured in the CD, Warchild: Hope. She also designed two greeting cards that are being sold on the Warchild website. Sum 41, on the other hand, raised awareness by traveling all the way to the Congo in 2004 to document the impact of war on children. Their documentary, entitled "Rocked: Sum 41 in Congo" was nominated for a Gemini Award in 2006.

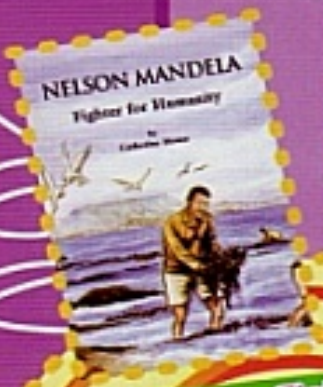
Bands and musicians not only use their popularity to create awareness and raise funds. More importantly, they show how each of us can make a difference. Other artists that have been involved with Warchild include Coldplay, Nelly Furtado, Nickleback and Keane. To know more about Warchild and their projects, go to <http://www.warchild.org> and learn how you can make a difference!

ONLINE READS

The Internet is a whole world of endless possibilities; you can do practically anything there—even read your favorite books! It's the perfect way you to while away your lazy summer afternoons!

Just because school is out for the summer, it doesn't mean you should stop reading books and learning new things. Thanks to the International Children's Digital Library <http://www.childrenslibrary.org/>, you can read books and short stories online—for free!

The site also contains literature from Africa, Europe, South America and East Asia – most of which are translated to English so you can read children's books from all over the world! Here are some must-reads for the summer:



Nelson Mandela- Fighter for Humanity By Catherine House

A true story of Africa's great statesman, with vivid descriptions of his childhood, his career as a lawyer in Johannesburg, his fight against Apartheid, his stay at Robbin Island, his presidency of South Africa, and his status as a world statesman.

The Secret Garden By Frances Hodgson Burnett

A ten-year-old orphan comes to live in a lonely house on the Yorkshire moors and discovers an invalid cousin and the mysteries of a locked garden.

Stories from Hans Christian Andersen By Hans Christian Andersen

A collection of classic fairy tales including The Snow Queen, The Nightingale, The Garden of Paradise, and The Emperor's New Clothes.

The Iliad (for Boys and Girls) By Homer Adapted by Alfred Church

Long ago, the people of Sparta had promised that they would help the King get his daughter back if she were ever kidnapped. Now the King of Troy, Paris, has kidnapped Fair Helen, and both kingdoms go to war.

Tasting Summer

Smoothies are the ultimate treat to get into the summer vibe... and best of all, they only take about ten minutes to prepare!

Chocolate-Banana Smoothie

Ingredients:

* 1 Banana
* 1- 2 Tablespoons of Chocolate Syrup (depending on how much of the chocolate flavor you want)
* 1 Cup of Milk
* 1 Cup of Crushed Ice

Procedure:

In a blender, combine banana, chocolate syrup, milk and crushed ice. Blend until smooth. Pour into glass and serve.

Mango-Strawberry-Banana Smoothie

Ingredients:

* 3 Strawberries
* 100g/ 4oz peeled and chopped mango flesh
* 1 small or 1/2 medium banana
* 1 orange, squeezed

Procedure:

Combine all the ingredients together and blend until smooth. Pour into glass and serve.

... What? Helia is disgraced ... magic doesn't work in Magix anymore ... and Riven has started to cause trouble once again! But when did all this happen?
Last week, I told you! We are still all so upset over it!
Last week? You don't update me enough, my dear! You shouldn't treat a diary like that.
How can I advise you otherwise? And who knows what else you've not told me!
Ugh, I've told you everything! Try not to wreck my head!
Everything? I really don't think so! That BELIZARIUS, for example ... are you sure he is just a dealer and not a wizard?
He isn't a wizard, just a dealer who is looking for the best way possible to conduct his dealings!
He found out by chance of the power of the stone and the boys weren't able to stop him finding it! He took it so he could blackmail everyone in this school!

He wants the witches to use their magic to increase his trade ... and now it will be very difficult for Griffin to say no!
Belizarius is a big, evil man, I know!
Listen, child ... Bloom is speaking to me, ok? Don't butt in!
Oh! Butt... butt in ... what does that mean?
Butt in ... get involved ... be nosey, right? Have you understood?
No! Why are you using such difficult terms? Are you a bit odd?
No-ooo! I am Bloom's diary and she was telling me something very interesting!
To be honest, right now she isn't telling you anything!
SHE WAS BEFORE YOU INTERRUPTED HER! FOR HEAVEN'S SAKE!
Ha! Ha! Don't mind him Lockette! We are all a bit edgy today!
In fact, nobody knows what is going to happen now that Belizarius has the Shaab Stone!
Get it back, right? Do something! Call the Specialists!

They are also in trouble ... especially Helia, poor guy! Even if it definitely wasn't his fault!
Are you referring to Riven? It's his fault entirely!
Sssh! I don't want Musa to hear! Since everything happened, I have never seen her this depressed!
Bah! You are worrying about nothing! Wait and see. In the end everything will be back to normal!
I really hope so! Apart from the magic, I don't want the Shaab Stone to also ruin our friendship!
So, the verdict is final?
Yes! Helia has been noted with disapproval, but it won't be written in his personal data!

Most of all, he will stay at this school! I was afraid he would be expelled!
I thought so too!
Expelled? ... Are you joking! Let's not forget who we are talking about here?
Helia is Saladin's grandson ... and the old man would never do anything to harm his career!
I was sure it would turn out like this! It will all be forgotten in a few days!
That would suit you, right?
We, on the other hand, won't forget that it was your fault entirely!
It's true Riven! You are wrong to speak like that!
We made mistakes and if Helia hadn't taken all the blame and stayed quiet ...
AAAH! But what blame!
We had the stone within arm's length and we attempted to take it. That's the truth! IT IS NOT A CRIME TO BE COURAGEOUS!

And maybe we would have succeeded if you had been more decisive!
WHAT?
ARE YOU SAYING I AM A COWARD? Look, I ...
Calm down Timmy! Leave it so!
Fighting among ourselves won't solve anything!
Exactly! You shouldn't take it so seriously!
Don't exaggerate! You were lucky this time, but things could be different next time!
Why don't you tell Flora that nothing is going to happen to Helia, Timmy? It would make her really happy!
Uhm! OK ...
I'll tell Tecna! Maybe we could all meet up at the White Horse this weekend ...
... That was very kind of you Timmy! Thank you! We'd love to come!

So, Sunday we are all off to the lake! I can't wait to see the boys again!
That's great news Tecna! I am so happy!
All these misadventures have me depressed ... I think only Brandon can cheer me up!
I know, Stella!
I am sure that when we meet up everything will be easier!
You'll come too, won't you Musa? We could dance all afternoon long!
Are you sure you want me to come with you?

I feel what happened is my fault! If I had convinced Riven to be more reasonable ...
But Musa, what are you saying?
You had nothing to do with it!
It is certainly not your fault if that boy is too rebellious!
Don't worry about it Musa! Sooner or later Riven will understand that you only have his best interests at heart, you wait and see!
In the meanwhile, we have to set an example and put our friendship before everything else!
So you aren't angry with me for what happened to Helia?
How could I? I love you!
Thank you Flora! I really love you too!
Ha! Ha! Ha!

... TENEBRIS LEVANTIBUS TERRIBILIS ... NOOO!
It is dissolving again! This experiment has failed too!
I just can't do it ... everything I know about magic is useless now!
This is the influence of the SHAAB STONE, right?
That's right! I can't do anything in Alfea either!

All our magic powers have been greatly reduced, if not completely eliminated!
This is so serious! Magic is fundamental to the equilibrium of the Universe ...
... And Magix is practically open to any attack from outside! That Belizarius doesn't realize what he has done!
He knows only too well, unfortunately! Has he returned to demand something from you?
Not yet! But he will for sure, that scoundrel!
And, seen as how things are, I'll have to give in to his blackmail sooner or later!
We cannot give up! We absolutely have to get that stone back and destroy it!

Ha! Ha! Ha! I have them in the palm of my hand, it's true!
Look at how the Shaab Stone sparkles! And it's all mine!
So clean and sparkling, its power is even stronger!
We have a problem, though!
Your official ... ehm ... friend said he is under a lot of pressure from the school principals! He wants you to destroy the stone ...
If the Fortress of Light intervenes, they could take away your trading licenses for Magix and ...
REALLY? I'D LIKE TO SEE THEM TRY!

Now I have the stone, nobody will deny me anything! Not even those stupid bureaucrats!
The stone is mine and nobody can force me to hand it over! You know the law!
And if anyone tries to take it away using force, they will have to deal with my men!
No, now it is away from harm! The Shaab Stone is my security now ...
... And it will be perfectly safe here! HA! HA! HA!
CLUNK
AH! AH! AH! AH!

Finally, the weekend arrived for the Winx ...
... Have you seen the boys? Have they arrived yet?
No, but I called Timmy a while ago and they were on the way!
Give them here, I'll help you!
Finally! You're late, you know?
Hi Stella! Here we are!

Hi Flora! How are you?
Fine! And you?
Of course! And now I'm never going to let you go!
Could you not wait to see me?
See him? That's the guy that let them rob the Shaab Stone!
Really?
Griffin is becoming hysterical over this! That's why she is showing the green mice to everyone!
You can never trust a boy!
Be careful what you say, honey! We are not all like that!
Ah, no?

Of course! If it wasn't for contacts certain people wouldn't even be at the school and woludn't be causing trouble!
Were you talking about me by any chance?
Helia, leave it so!
My name is Horg ... and I am the biggest in my class!
I, on the other hand, don't have the pleasure of knowing you!
Please, Helia! Let it be!
Oh, look who it is! You're the one that messed everything up, right?

You know nothing about what happened, Horg! So you don't look like a big idiot, you should shut up!
WHAT?
I'll show you!
SWISH
HELIA, NO!
YAAAH!
EEEK!
SMASH!
MY NEW TOOOOP!
What the hell ...?!?

Helia, have you gone mad? STOP!
I'M GOING TO KILL YOU!
SBRUMB
UFF...!
STUMP
OUCH!

FOR HEAVEN'S SAKE!
SHUP
Are you going to listen to me or not? You can't do that, you understand? YOU CAN'T!
Oh my God!
What has happened here? Make way!
You know well we don't tolerate fighting, especially among students! Who started it?
It was me!

The next day ...
... This will not be tolerated! Helia must learn how to behave!
They are boys, sir! Helia was provoked ...
How could he have done this! And after everything that has happened!
What will the Fortress of Light council think of us? As if the situation wasn't serious enough already!
Those kids were just a bit tense, sir! I don't think it is that serious ...
Nobody can say I have preferences! Do you understand? NO-ONE!
But, sir ... But, sir ...
We have already been too tolerant! This time the punishment is going to be exemplary!

What? Helia was EXPELLED!?
Oh, no! It's not possible!
Timmy has just told me! The boys are out of their minds too!
No! No! SIGH!
Helia, expelled? Have they all gone mad?
It's too much! And then Helia being Saladin's grandson, heck!
Actually, I think that's the reason!
What do you mean?
You have also heard what the witches are saying, right? They are all convinced that Saladin would do everything to favor his grandson!

So Saladin had to show us that wasn't true, by giving Helia an excessive punishment!
Well, I think he's a fool! Saladin should do what is right and that's it, without listening to gossip!
They are all afraid what the Fortress of Light council will say! They're political issues ... and Helia is caught in the middle!
Where is Helia, now?
He has already left Cloud Tower and is looking for a room in the city! The boys don't know any more and can't move about at the moment!
I'll go!
Perhaps we should stay by his side to help her ...
But Flora, now we have class exercises! Wizgiz will go mad ...
I don't care about the class work! I have to go!

Please make up some excuse for me!
Wait, Flora! I'll go with you!
Let her go, Layla! She has to sort this herself!
... Please, Sky, Helia didn't tell you anything? Did he know where he was going!
I wasn't talking to him for long ...
Codaterta is keeping an eye on us and is really infuriated! I heard him mentioning the White Horse, if that helps you ...
Thanks a lot Sky! Talk to you soon!
... I think he is going there before going to Magix!

... The boy who caused all this confusion? Yeah, he was here!
He came to pay me for the damage caused in the bar ... he was cleverer than I thought!
He was looking for a place to stay in Magix! Do you know where he was going, by any chance?
You're lucky! He asked me where to go and I told him about a friend of mine who rents cheap rooms ... but it is on the other side of the city!
Oh!
And I think he hasn't left yet! Actually ... I think he is still on the pier!
HE'S STILL HERE? Oh, thank you!
I saw he was really down, poor guy! Hope he doesn't do anything stupid!

Helia, I'm here!
You shouldn't be with me! From what I hear I'm a danger to everyone!
But, what are you saying? It was just a misunderstanding, here's the truth!
My grandfather is the principal of Cloud Tower and he told me in front of everyone that I don't deserve to be there!
I am sure your grandfather ...

If what I've done up to now isn't worth a damn, I'm the one that wants to leave! I'll find a job and live my life elsewhere!
Helia, calm down! It's only a passing crisis. Wait and see that ...
I don't need anyone's help to show people what I'm made of! No one!
Helia, darling, I'm here with you!
No one, I said! Not even you!
Oh!

Hello! I hear you are looking for a house and work!
My company is looking for staff! A young man like you could be useful!
If the conditions are right, why not?
... No less than Saladin's grandson! I would be honored to have you by my side!
As a collaborator ... and certainly not only as an employee! You are young and destined for great things, you know?
I'm not interested in staying in Magix anymore! I know you have businesses in all the realms ...

Can I have a look at one of your shuttles! I want to go far away from here ...
Why so far away? You would be a lot more useful here, young man!
You were destined to become Saladin's successor, right? But they treated you terribly!
And that's why I'm here!
Exactly! To help you avenge such injustice ... or give you command of a commercial fleet ... there are lots of options for us!
But first I have to test you to understand how useful you could be for me!
What do you want me to do?
I don't know! You make me an offer!
You want to convince Griffin to help you with her magic powers, don't you?

Maybe!
There's a secret document ... an agreement between the principals to appoint Griffin to Cloud Tower which goes against the other applicants and works around the law!
Really?
I heard my grandfather talking about it, but he doesn't know I overheard! It was written a long time ago ... and all three have a copy!
I cannot get into Cloud Tower or Redfountain ... but maybe I could take Faragonda's copy!
Uhm! Interesting!
I could finally convince Griffin to help me ... she must have some weakness! Well done, young man!
Would that suffice as an entrance test?
I am placing my trust in you! ... But how will you get into Alfea?
I know someone who'll help me!

A few days later ...
BRRRRRR!
BRRRRRR!
But who is calling me so late? ...Ugh ! Be quiet! But who is calling me so late? ...Ugh ! Be quiet!
HELIA? What ...
Flora, can you hear me?
Sssh ... yes, I can hear you! Why are you calling me?
I need you ...I want to explain!
I'm outside! Can you come out without being seen?
You're in Alfea? But I ...
Ok! Wait for me! I'm on my way!

Helia, finally!
Belizarius is plotting against my grandfather, Saladin! The fight in the bar was provoked to force him to kick me out and make him look bad in front of the Fortress of council!
It is very important! ... Some news!
What is happening? What are you doing here?
Belizarius spies on all our discussions ... I cannot risk him finding out!
An official in Magix corrupted by Belizarius! I don't know who, but if I read the document I might be able to discover who it is!
So ask Faragonda for it! She'll give it to you!
He is the real objective and I know Faragonda received a document full of lies about him with the aim of destroying him!
A document? But who sent it?

I have to see it without anyone finding out ...that's why I need your help!
A few days ago you didn't need me anymore ...
I was ... I was confused and didn't know what I was saying, Flora! I am sorry!
I want to believe you Helia ...
I promise Flora!
... But promise me that what you are doing is for everyone's good, please!
Let's go! I will bring you upstairs, but don't make any noise!
The door is the one at the end, but ... be careful!

Miss Flora ...what are you doing up at this hour?
I can't sleep! I have indigestion and was trying to walk it off ...
Is it not late for you to be working?
Oh, I suffer from insomnia! ... And anyway, I can't clean the corridors when they are full of people!
Well done Flora! Now it's my turn!
Some time later ...
Certainly am! Now if you'll excuse me, miss ...
... And so you are happy to stay here!
I can't stop, otherwise I will never get finished in time! Good night!
Good night Knut!

Did you find what you were looking for?
Yes! I photographed the document and put it back in its place, so nobody will suspect a thing!
Come on! With Knut around, we have to reach the other exit!
Later ...
Here we are. From here you can go through the woods as you asked me!
You were a big help Flora! Thank you!
Goodbye Helia ... and good luck!
Goodbye!
I shouldn't let him go alone! If Helia is in danger, I ...

Let's get going, before they discover us!
?!?
But those ... those are Belizarius' men! HELIA TRICKED ME!
AAAAGGH...!
I have to follow it! If I could transform myself ...
I thought I wouldn't make it! Ugh! The Shaab Stone is really powerful against magic!

... Excellent work, young man! So it was true!
With a copy of this document, I have Griffin by the neck!
And that's not all!
Look at all the photos! I have found other interesting papers!
TOC TOC TOC
What's up? I'm busy!
An unexpected guest, boss!
We surprised her while she was trying to hide in the hangar! She must have followed us from Alfea!
FLORA?!?

I would never have thought this, Helia! What you are doing is ... frightening!
Why have you followed me? You should have stayed out of it!
Do you know this girl? I am sorry, son!
What does that mean?
Well, she knows too much and we have to do something so she can't go blabbing around ...
Lothar, bring her to the dungeons and ....
Wait! There are more important things! Continue reading!
I found a document about you among Faragonda's papers!
BLOODY HELL!
A plan to attack my headquarters and rob the Shaab Stone!?!
That's right! They are going to attack tomorrow, it seems .... with all the students of the three schools!

Why wasn't I told of this?
We control them with micro-spy devices and radios, boss! We cannot intercept a letter!
Obviously, they must have used letters so we wouldn't find out!
They'll going to attack tomorrow, eh? They're in for a big surprise!
We'll move the Shaab Stone and put it somewhere safe! Prepare the men!
Yes sir!
Move! You sort the girl and ...
No! She's not going anywhere!
She can't hurt you now! I'll sort her!
So you want a little present, eh?
Don't think I'll forgive you! We have betrayed everyone and nobody will let us forget it!
Ok! Keep her if you want, but she better not bother me!

Tie her to the chair and keep an eye on her! Move!
I'm going! I'll call you when we're ready!
You don't trust anyone, eh?
I'll going to open the armored door! You turn around!
The first rule of business! He! He!
Admire my treasure! Ha! Ha!
Ooohh...
Oh! Oh! I forgot it has a bad effect on our fairies ...

YAAAAAH!
SKRAK
The safe must stay open!
What does that mean? CLOSE IT!
Damn ...
Ouck!
GUARDS, HURRY ... Ugh!
No way!

SBRUM
UGH...!
This door, instead, must stay closed ...
... At least not until we are finished!
Can you come! All clear!
But, what ...
Here we are, Helia!
Riven?! Sky?!
SKRAAAASH
GRINGLE

You are an unexpected guest, Flora, but Riven will gladly give you a lift! Get on, quick!
I'll take the stone!
But .. but, so ...
What's happening in there? OPEN THE DOOR!
SHANK SBAM
Let's go, quickly!

It was all a trap! Helia isn't a traitor!
Of course not, but Belizarius completely fell for it!
Even the documents Helia stole were false! He only wanted Belizarius to trust him so he would open the safe in front of him ...
We were waiting for his call ... and you know the rest!
Nobody is coming after us! We did it!
Let's finish the job and go home!
... And so we arrived to a shuttle where Timmy and Brandon were waiting for us and we all went to FLAME MOUNTAIN in the land of the dragons!
And did you destroy the Shaab Stone?

We threw it into the crater where no-one will ever find it!
I immediately felt better! Our magic powers are no longer in danger, at long last!
Oh, Flora! It's incredible! It was a wonderful surprise for everyone!
How nice! So he and Riven and friends again?
Helia didn't tell anyone anything!
Only the principals knew! Helia deliberately provoked the fight in the bar ... and Saladin pretended to throw him out of Redfountain so Belizarius would contact him and fall into the trap!
Even the boys didn't know anything until the last minute ... and Helia asked Riven to take part in the action!

"Yes! In the end they shook hands ..."
You've been really smart Helia ... and I was a fool! I hope from now on we can be friends!
You bet!
Obviously Helia was fully reinstated in Redfountain, with full honors!
And Belizarius?
* He quickly fled so he wouldn't have to explain himself to anyone! Without the protection of the Shaab Stone things were getting a little too difficult for him ..."

Bring the most important papers and burn the rest! GET A MOVE ON! I'll get back on them on my own next time!

Even his men have left! The building and the warehouses have been abandoned!

And how did things go with Helia then?
Well, in the beginning it was very embarrassing, I have to say ...
... I doubted you! I believed you really were a traitor!
I did everything to make it look like that! I would have been in deep trouble had Belizarius suspected something!
So, am I forgiven! We are friends again!
Just friends? I was hoping we were something more!
"It was the start to the best day of my life!"
THE END
